GRINDING TO A HALT – THE NEW ARMY – 1915

"SURVIVORS OF THE FORMIDABLE. There appears to be little doubt now that of the officers and crew of the battleship Formidable, which, as reported on page 3, was sunk in the Channel on the morning of New Year's Day, only 201 have been saved. The ship went down between 3 and 3.30. There were from 700 to 800 men on board at the time. Of the four boats launched, one, a barge, capsized and several men were thrown out, the second, also a barge, got away with about 70 men, who were picked up by a light cruiser; the third, a pinnace, also with some 60 men, got ashore at Lyme Regis, and the fourth, a launch, with 70 men, after being in a rough sea for about 11 hours, was rescued about 15 miles off Berry Head by the trawler Providence, and brought into Brixham. Survivors have given graphic accounts of the foundering of the battleship and of their terrible experiences. The South Eastern Gazette - 5th January.

TWIST IN THE TALE..... HMS Formidable deserter from 1910 in custody as ship sinks “SAFE IN GOAL. Patrick Mackin, a ship's fireman, was charged at West Ham yesterday with being a deserter from H.M.S. Formidable, which sank in the Channel on New Year's-day.

The man gave himself up on December 22 on his return from a foreign voyage, saying he left the Formidable when she was at Sheerness in August 1910. After a week's remand the Admiralty had not sent the required information, and he was further remanded to Brixton Gaol.

Inspector Eade yesterday stated that the Admiralty had asked that Mackin be sent back to the naval depot, and he therefore asked for the discharge of the man.

"If you had been sent back last week," said Mr. Gillespie, "you would possibly have been at the bottom of the sea by now." Daily Express - 5th January 1915.

BRICKFIELD JOB LOSSES

"TEYNHAM: Messrs. Eastwood and Co have closed for an indefinite period, their brickworks at Conyer, Teynham. This course has been taken owing to the great falling off in the demand for bricks caused by the war. About 100 employees are affected----" Faversham and North East Kent News, 16th January 1915.

ROYAL GARRISON ARTILLERY (Sheerness) soldiers slow to return from leave

§ 70. Mr. GOLDSTONE asked the Under-Secretary for War whether certain men of the Royal Garrison Artillery at present stationed at Garrison Point Fort, Sheerness, have been refused the leave of absence promised some time ago; whether he will state what is the reason for this refusal; and whether men concerning whom no complaint has been made are being penalised because of the failure of a few of their comrades to return to duty at the expiration of their leave of absence?

§ Mr. TENNANT - The men were divided into batches for the purpose of Christmas leave. Almost all of the first batch overstayed their leave three or four days. In consequence of this the second batch were warned, but they also overstayed their leave.

As a result of this disregard of orders, all leave was stopped except in the case of those men who had passed their drills. Hansard Report on House of Commons Debate on 8th February 1915 (vol 69 c242 242)

VOLUNTARY TRAINING CORPS MARCHES ON GREENSTREET.

The Sittingbourne Voluntary Training Corps, despite the inclement weather, had a march-out to the village of Greenstreet on Wednesday evening [17th February], for the purpose of assisting in forming a new Corps at that place. The Commandant (Mr. W.S. Cowper) was in charge, and on arrival the President (Brigadier-General P.D. Jeffreys) inspected the men. Afterwards a meeting was held, at which the speakers were the General, Mr. Cowper, Mr A.A. Richards (Secretary of the Sittingbourne Corps), Mr. P.D. Selby, and latter's son, Lieut. Selby, R.N., of H.M.S. Lion, who came in for a great reception. As a result of the meeting a section of the Sittingbourne Corps will be formed at Greenstreet, and staff-sergeants of the Dublin Fusiliers will undertake the training, as at Sittingbourne. Kent Messenger of 20th February 1915

RECRUITMENT MARCH IN THE VILLAGES

ROYAL EAST KENT MOUNTED RIFLES. A depot is being formed for the Royal East Kent Mounted Rifles at Canterbury, for which 220 recruits are to be raised, and Lieutenant A. Faunce de Laune, of the 2nd Regiment, has been appointed recruiting officer. Lieut. de Laune will take a troop from the 2nd Regiment on a recruiting march into some of the rural districts of the country next week. On Thursday Chartham and Chilham will be visited; on Friday the troop will go to Charing and Lenham; on Saturday, Ulcombe, Sutton Valence, Leeds and Hollingbourne will be taken in turn; on Sunday morning, after a church parade at Hollingbourne, the troop will march through Doddington and Newnham to Greenstreet; on Monday, Bapchild, Rodmersham, Bredgar, and Eastling will be visited; and on Tuesday the troop will return to Herne, via Hernhill. Another similar march in East Kent is being arranged. Kent Messenger - 17th April 1915

LYNSTED RECRUITS

"The Lynsted list of men serving in H.M. Forces now numbers close upon a hundred men, representing about 9 per cent of the population of the parish – a very creditable record." Faversham and North East Kent News on 17th July

TEYNHAM RECRUITS

Teynham has now at least 115 men in the Forces. Writing in the Deanery Magazine the Vicar says: "The last few days has seen a revival in the number of those who offer themselves. St. Andrew's has lost its organist, and our fine choir at the Parish Church is almost depleted of men. We thank them for all they have done in the past, and hope that before long happier ties will bring them back again." The Faversham and North East Kent News of 18th December

THE ROLL OF HONOUR.

Last Wednesday [4th August] was the anniversary of the outbreak of the War. During the year Faversham and the district has lost by death as many as 50 men, that is to say men who belonged here either by birth, or the residence of their parents, or by their own residence here.

The list is possibly incomplete, but it includes all whom we have been able to trace.

Of the total number 35 belonged to the Army or Territorials, and 14 to the Navy, while one as employed in Sheerness Dockyard. Forty-two have either been killed in action, died of wounds, or lost at sea, the deaths of the remaining eight being due to either illness or accident. Several of the men were married and have left widows and families.

Society Note: Forgotten? Herbert Croucher - Stoker Petty Officer, No. 182769 - is not otherwise memorialised in Doddington nor by this project as his life in Doddington was short-lived - although clearly local memory was included by this newspaper. Perhaps this omission should be revisited? Herbert was born in Margate, and by 1901 he had joined the Navy, stationed at Chatham. He died on 1st January 1915 whilst serving on H.M.S. Formidable. His next of kin is listed as his friend, Miss Minnie Long or 84, King Street, Gillingham. His body was not recovered.] The Faversham and North East News on 7th August 1915

GAS!

22nd April 1915 saw the first use of Poison Gas which caused mayhem on the Front.

With the opening of the Second Battle of Ypres (22nd April - 15th May 1915), the Germans introduced poison gas against French trenches. The impact of this weapon is picked up in the context of the death of Private Leonard Terry (a Teynham man) that occurred on 3rd May.

“CAPTAIN LORD TEYNHAM, Captain Lord Teynham, who is the 18th Baron and takes his title from the village of that name between Sittingbourne and Faversham, is in the trenches with his Regiment, the 6th Buffs (East Kent Regt.) Lord Teynham, who is 48 years of age, was a Captain in the East Kent Yeomanry for some years previous to the war.” Kent Messenger on 2nd October 1915.

GREENSTREET VOLUNTEER TRAINING CORPS & AN ENTERTAINMENT

GREENSTREET. A section of the Sittingbourne and District Volunteer Training Corps has been formed at Greenstreet, and already has 50 members, among whom are the Vicar of Teynham, Rev. W.A. Purton, and his curate, Rev. A.B. Cole, Mr. W.R. Stonhame, of Scuttington Manor, has undertaken the temporary charge of the section, and Mr. R. Seager, of the Dover Castle, is acting as Hon. Sec. The Section meets for drill on Mondays at 8.30 p.m., Wednesday at 7.30 pm and Sundays at 9 am.

TEYNHAM. Colonel and Mrs Honeyball last week entertained at Newgardens about 100 wives and dependents of men belonging to the Teynham district who are serving their country. The gathering was under the auspices of the Faversham Division of the Soldiers’ and Sailors;; Families Association, and Lady Violet Milles, the Hon. Secretary of the Division, was present. The guests greatly appreciated the hospitality of Col. And Mrs. Honeyball and very much enjoyed the gathering. Faversham and North East Kent News - 12th June 1915

"A GREENSTREET OFFICER WOUNDED. We regret to learn that Lieut Gerard P. Selby, RAMC, the eldest son of Dr and Mrs. Selby, of Greenstreet, Teynham, was wounded on March 7th, Lieut. Selby, who is attached to the 1st Battalion, Argyll and Sutherland Highlanders, was standing near a shell which burst, and he was wounded in the leg. The young officer is now in hospital at Farnborough, and is progressing so well that he may shortly be expected home."

On 31st March he was promoted to Captain - Reported on 3rd April 1915 in the West Kent Gazette: "Lieut. Gerard P. Selby, RAMC, son of Dr and Mrs Selby, of Greenstreet, has been promoted to the rank of Captain, the promotion to date from March 30th." West Kent Gazette on 20th March 1915

INJURED SOLDIERS ARRIVE IN FAVERSHAM Twenty-four wounded soldiers, direct from the front, have been admitted into the military hospital at Faversham. There are now just over fifty men in the hospital. Herne Bay Express on 27th March 1915

ABSENT WITHOUT LEAVE

"TEYNHAM - At the Faversham County Police Court this (Friday) morning (before E Chambers, Esq), Charles Lucas, who was in plain clothes, pleaded guilty to being an absentee from the Queen’s Royal West Surrey Regiment. PC Hogg stated that at 6.30 the previous evening he saw prisoner at his home in Greenstreet and asked if he was absent without leave. He admitted he had been absent since the 9th of this month. Prisoner, who said the reason he had not returned was that he had been queer with neuralgia, was ordered to be detained until an escort arrived."

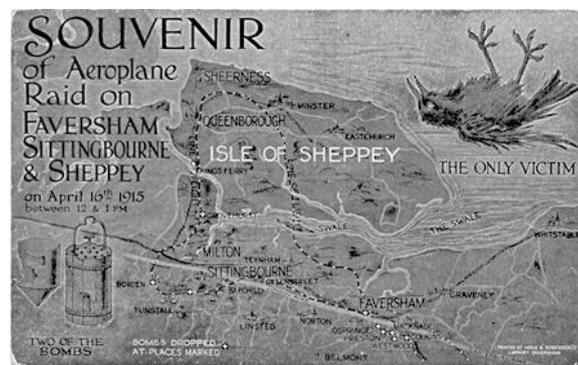

Society Note: Charles was a brother to James Lucas who lost his life on 5th September 1915, only a matter of two weeks after this event. Faversham and North East Kent News on 21st August

bank at Buckland Corner, Norton, where the Faversham Rural District Council is carrying out a corner improvement, the workmen on Tuesday [20th April] came across the skeleton of a human being. The skeleton was embedded in the chalk. The Highway Surveyor had the bones collected. Later reported [4th May]: SKELETON AT NORTON. The skeleton found at Buckland Corner, Norton, is thought to be probably that of a person who committed suicide, and, in accordance with the old custom, was buried at the cross-roads. South Eastern Gazette of 27th April and 4th May 1915

BLACKBIRD KILLED IN BOMBING RAID

15th April, the path of the bombs. “Our Sittingbourne correspondent says that directly after the appearance of the Taube over that town, another air machine, flying considerably lower and carrying a pilot, was seen following it. The Taube could barely be distinguished; but when it executed a circling movement its wings glittered in the sunlight. The German circled the district twice, during which three bombs were dropped, and then he darted off in the direction from which he had come, leaving his pursuer - said to be a Frenchman - far in the rear. One bomb fell in an orchard near Gore Court Park, where it exploded and damaged a tree, killing a blackbird. Some people were walking about 50 years off, but they were unhurt. Another bomb fell in an earth-pit in Messrs. Burley's brickfield at Cryalls, Borden, a mile westwards from Gore Court Park. This exploded and threw up a cloud of earth, but that was all. The third bomb fell in a brickfield at Grovehurst, Milton, two miles due north of Gore Court, in the direction of Sheppey. This bomb embedded itself in the earth without exploding. The whole raid lasted about twenty minutes. Before one could realise what had happened the daring raider had gone, and, in spite of rifle and gun fire at Sittingbourne, Faversham, and from some guns at Sheerness, the German succeeded in quitting Kent unscathed.

From the course taken by the Taube, it is thought that the machine came from Zeebrugge. It is described as a biplane fitted with floats. The opinion is held that it was on a scouting expedition.

At Deal, shortly before one o'clock, the buzz of an aeroplane caused many of the inhabitants to go into the streets and stare at the clouds, but nothing was to be seen, even with the aid of telescopes, as there were heavy banks of clouds. People at Kingsdown, a little village two miles away, claim to have seen a German aeroplane emerge from the clouds, and they say that it came south at a great height - a mere speck in the sky - and was apparently travelling towards Dunkirk. Shortly afterwards a number of British airmen were seen giving chase." South Eastern Gazette on 20th April 1915

ALLEGED ATTEMPTED SUICIDE. Emmeline Ada Barling, who has been residing at Faversham, was charged before Captain Cheetham at the County Police Court on Thursday, with attempting to commit suicide. It appeared that on Thursday evening, April 29th, prisoner went to her aunt's at Lynsted. She went into the garden, subsequently returning to the house and informing her aunt she had taken "the poison." Archibald Barling, a brother, went for a doctor, and Dr. J.P. Henderson attended. He found prisoner in a collapsed state, and administer an emetic, and she afterwards became better. In a bag prisoner had left in the garden were found torn packages bearing the labels "Salts of lemon." The brother also found in the garden a note in pencil addressed "To the Coroner." The papers and the note, it appeared, were afterwards thrown into the fire by the brother, who now stated that "he did not think they would be required." On the following day the prisoner was removed to the Infirmary. When apprehended she denied taking the salts, stating she bought them and threw them away just to frighten her brother. Prisoner was committed for trial at the East Kent Quarter Sessions. East Kent Gazette on 11th May 1915.

"EAST KENT QUARTER SESSIONS. Emmeline Ada Barling, aged 46, a music hall artiste, was indicted for attempting to commit suicide by taking salts of lemon at Lynsted on April 29th. Mr. Gibson appeared for the prosecution, and prisoner pleaded not guilty.

Lord Harris, in summing up the evidence, said it must be equally distressing to the jury, as it was to himself, to find a member of a family of such old standing and so respected in the neighbourhood of Sittingbourne in such a position. Of course they must not allow any feelings of sympathy to govern their decision, but he pointed out that prisoner was very emphatic in her statement that she did not take the poison. The jury found her not guilty." Kent Messenger on 3rd July 1915

PETTY CRIMES

STOLEN JEWELLERY - Edith Louisa Kemp, a young domestic servant, belonging to Lynsted, was charged with stealing a gold bracelet and a gold diamond ring, valued at £15 10s., the property of Mrs. Murdock, the wife of the Headmaster of Borden Grammar School, between June and October. The articles had been pawned for

10s. with Messrs. Croft, Sittingbourne. Prisoner pleaded guilty, and was bound over for twelve months. [Court case heard on 11th January] Kent Messenger and South Eastern Gazette - 12th January 1915

FAVERSHAM COUNTY POLICE COURT. Ernest Lennard, 17, of Oare, pleaded guilty to stealing a quantity of potatoes, value 1s. 6d., at Luddenham, the property of Mr. Percy French, on January 11th. As it was a first offence the Bench bound prisoner over. South Eastern Gazette - 26th January 1915

STRIKE A LIGHT!

"A DANGEROUS PRACTICE. Alfred Frederick Baker, a youth, of Barrow Green, Teynham, was fined 15s. For taking matches on to the works of the Cotton Powder Co. contrary to the regulations on November 6th.

The Chairman said that his dangerous practice must be stopped and future offenders would be dealt with more severely. Mr. Foley, foreman, said that as defendant's mother was a widow the Company would pay the fine." Whitstable Times and Herne Bay Herald on 27th November 1915

LYNSTED - THEFT OF HORSE AND CART. FAVERSHAM COUNTY POLICE COURT. At the Sessions on Thursday [4th March], Captain Hooper presiding, Thomas Russell, no fixed abode, was charged, on remand, with stealing, at Lynsted, on Sunday, Feb. 28th, a horse and harness, value £27, the property of Albert William Clark, of Bredgar; also a cart, value £3 (to which the horse was attached, and which Clark had borrowed), the property of John Goodhew, of Bredgar. The horse and cart were taken from outside the Foxhunter's public house, Lynsted, on Sunday afternoon, while the prosecutor Clark and some friends were inside having some refreshment. The prisoner left the house at about the time they entered. At about 5.30 the same afternoon the horse and cart were found unattended at Doddington, two miles from Lynsted, and the prisoner was also seen there. He was not, however, with the horse at that time. On the following day he was arrested at Wormshill, when he admitted taking the horse away the previous afternoon, and said he had been drinking and must have lost his senses. Prisoner now said he had no intention of stealing, and that it was merely a foolish act. The Bench thought he had not felonious intent, and dismissed the charge, the Chairman reprimanding him and pointing out that he had done a very serious thing. Kent Messenger - 9th March 1915

CHARGE OF HOUSE-BREAKING. At the County Petty Sessions on Thursday [1st July 1915] (Mr. W.W.Berry in the chair), Robert George Seager Croft, were charged with breaking and entering the Vicarage Cottage, Lynsted, on Wednesday, with intent to steal the goods and chattels of Mabel Mitchell, a school teacher, residing there. It appeared that the male prisoner was seen in the front room, and Mrs. Mitchell afterwards found a work-box turned out, but she did not miss anything. When arrested the man said he went to ask for some water, but getting no answer he opened the door (which was not locked) and walked in; he did not break in. There was no evidence of the woman having entered the house, and she was discharge, while the Bench gave the man the benefit of the doubt. He was then re-arrested, however, and charged on his own confession with being an absentee from the R.G.A. at Dover. He was ordered to be detained until an escort arrived. South Eastern Gazette on 6th July 1915

CHARGE AGAINST A GREENSTREET GIRL. At the Faversham County Police Court on Friday [9th July 1915], Elizabeth Frances Tumber, 19, residing at Greenstreet, was charged with breaking and entering the house of John Robert Goodwin, residing next door, and stealing one shilling. It appeared that in consequence of having missed money the prosecutor marked two separate shillings. On Thursday last he and his wife were out during the day, and when they returned in the evening one of the marked coins was missing from a drawer. The police were informed and it was subsequently found that a marked shilling (identified by prosecutor as the missing one) had been tendered by prisoner at a shop in Greenstreet for the hire of a bicycle. Prisoner was arrested, and on the way to Faversham said she unlocked prosecutor's back door with her mother's back door key, and went upstairs and took the money. The Magistrate reduced the charge to one of felony, and prisoner was remanded in custody. South Eastern Gazette on 13th July 1915

"A WATERY CASE. Clara Jones, of West End, Lynsted, was summoned for assaulting Slinea Lyons at Lynsted, on November 12th.

Complainant, who lives two doors away from defendant, stated that she had to sweep some water away in the yard when defendant threw a pail of water over her. She also cracked her on the head with a pail causing blood to flow. She (witness) then threw some water over the defendant.

Annie Jones, a little girl, corroborated.

Defendant stated that complainant swept the water into her doorway, and she emptied a pail of water down the bricks as there was nothing but mud and ashes. Defendant then threw some water over her, and she threw a pail at her, but it did not touch her.

Complainant then took up a pail of dirty water and threw over her.

Eleanor Dennis, of Austin's Cottages, Greenstreet, corroborated.

The Bench dismissed the case, the Chairman saying that they felt it ought never to have been brought there as it was evidently a neighbours' quarrel. They hoped that in future they would live in harmony together. Mr. French, J.P., did not adjudicate in this case." Whitstable Times and Herne Bay Herald of 27th November 1915

AT OARE - CYCLISTS IN TROUBLE. Sidney Simmons, of 29, Cromwell Road, Whitstable, William Beesley, of Banks Cottage, Teynham, Walter Venner, of Lactus Cottage, Ospringe, William Hudson, of 36, Priory Row, North Preston Without, Alfred Bourne, of Pig Green, Eastling, and Frank Hudson Metcalfe, of Saxon Road, Faversham, were summoned for having lights on their cycles of greater brilliance than was necessary for the public safety at Oare on various dates.

The Bench fined Simmons, Venner, Hudson, and Brown 5s. each, Beesley 7s.6d., and Metcalfe 10s.

The Chairman said that cyclists using acetylene lamps must shade the upper part, and in future cases the fines would have to be increased.

William Wilshire, attached to the National Reserves, and one of the main gate guard at the Cotton Powder Works, was fined 10s for riding a bicycle without a light at Oare on October 26th. He said he was not in a position to pay the fine as being a non-efficient soldier he only got 2s. a week. The Bench allowed him 21 days to find the money.

Thomas Martin, 37 South Road, Faversham, was fined 5s. for riding a cycle without a red rear light at Oare on October 28. Whitstable Times and Herne Bay Herald on 27th November 1915.

LYNSTED PARISH COUNCIL ARGUES OF CHILD LABOUR ON FARMS. Taken from Lynsted Parish Council Minutes of 18th October 1915: Proposed by Rev T J Sewell, seconded Mr T L Ackerman, the Council resolved - "That the Lynsted Parish Council is of opinion that in view of the extreme scarcity of labour in this district, children of more than 12 years of age, who have bona fide employment suited to their strength & capability should not be prosecuted for non-attendance at school." - this resolution was forwarded to the Faversham School Attendance Committee.

CHILDREN ON FARMS

"At the Canterbury Farmers' Club and East Kent Chamber of Agriculture an interesting debate took place on the question whether facilities should be given for boys of twelve years and upwards to work on farms during the war ... So many of the younger men had been called up to the Colours that there was undoubtedly a shortage of labour, and with the present prices of food, etc., the money earned would be very useful to the families of labouring people.

Mr. J.D. Maxted advocated that similar facilities should be asked for in the case of girls, whose services in hop training and fruit picking were, if anything, more useful than those of the boys. Their schooling would only be interfered with during the period of the war." Folkestone, Hythe, Sandgate & Cheriton Herald - 23rd January

LOVE AND ANGUISH

MARRIAGE on 3rd April 1915: SATTIN - RIDLEY

George Lovett Sattin (b 1891; parents John Sattin) married Elizabeth Ridley (b 1878; parents George Ridley) in Lynsted.

Two years later, almost to the day, his brother John Lovett Sattin [7th Battalion - Canadian Infantry] was killed at the Front. John Lovett Sattin, married in 1907, was one of several local men who emigrated to Canada in search of a better life. Their parents were John and Elizabeth Jane Sattin, Coalyard Clerk for the County Council, living in Greenstreet (Lynsted Parish side).

Elizabeth Ridley's brother, Ernest Ridley, lost his life three weeks later on 20th April.

VICARAGE IS COLD AND DAMP.... "RESIGNATION OF THE RECTOR OF LUDDENHAM. The Rev. S. Faithorne Green, Rector of Luddenham, is resigning the living after a stay of little more than a year, and leaves at the end of the present month.

He was inducted to the living from which the Rev. Barrington S. Wright retired in the previous March on August 9th, 1914, prior to which he had been Rector of Charlton, Dover, since 1889.

The rectory house at Luddenham is very old, and the fact that the ground about it is water-logged makes it an undesirable place of residence.

When Mr. Green came to the parish the erection of a new rectory was mooted and settled, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners promising a grant of £1,500 towards the cost. The war, however, has put the project out of the question, owing to the greatly increased cost which would be involved, and feeling that he cannot face another winter in the old house, Mr. Green has tendered his resignation to the Lord Chancellor, who has the patronage of the living." Whitstable Times and Herne Bay Herald on 30th October 1915.

"GREENSTREET- THINKING OF "THE BOYS" – Will the residents of Lynsted and Teynham, who have relatives in the Army or Navy, give their names and numbers to Mr. H.A.J. Peasall, "The Pharmacy", Greenstreet, so that a Christmas greeting may be forwarded to them?" The East Kent Gazette 20th November
